AFTER OLIVER.

My sense of sight is very keen,
My sense of hearing weak.
One time I saw a mountain pass,
But could not hear its peak.
—Oliver Herford.

Why, Ollie, that you failed in this
Is not so very queer,
To hear its peak you should, you know,
Have had a mountaineer.
—Boston Transcript.

But if I saw a mountain pass,
My eye I'd never drop;
I'd keep it turned upon the height,
And see the mountain's top.
—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

I didn't see the mountain pass,
Nor hear its peak, by George;
But when it comes to storing stuff,
I saw the mountain gorge!
—Exchange.

The mountain, peaked at this,
Frowned dark while Ollie gazed;
A cloud o'erspread its lofty brow,
And then the mountain side.
—Transcript.

If Ollie could not hear its peak,
Or song of any bird,
Of lambs, or cows, upon its slope,
Be sure the mountain herd.
—Tops and Tales.

Why Ollie couldn't see or hear,
As past the mountain strode,
On its way to sweet somewhere,
Was 'cause the mountain road.

The Smallest Scuttle

Of our free-burning, non-klinking coal will go as far as the largest of the other kinds. There are as many grades of coal as there are of eggs, and to be sure of the best you should buy where only the best is handled. That is right here, as many large coal users can tell you.

FARROW REUNION

The annual reunion of the descendants of Colonel William Farrow will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Lockridge, Greencastle, Ind., August 4th. All relatives are invited to attend.

Mrs. Belle F. Bishop, President.
Mrs. M. M. Marshall, Secretary.

The Democratic candidates for Congress in the Ninth District are making a desperate fight to secure the vote of Harrison county, considered the deciding factor.

EASY FOR BENNETT

Every County in Ninth District Held Conventions and Indorsed Present Congressman

The Republicans in every county composing the Ninth Kentucky District met in convention in their respective counties Saturday and by acclamation instructed for Congressman J. H. Bennett, who will be unanimously renominated next Wednesday when the Congressional Convention meets in this city.

All opposition to Bennett's nomination scattered several weeks ago and his easy victory in his party portends a strong and winning race next November.

The Mason county Republicans, though not present in large numbers, met at the Court-house Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and in a formal and harmonious manner instructed the county delegates to solidly support Judge Bennett and warmly indorsed his record in Congress. The Taft Administration was upheld in a ringing resolution, and, summing up the local situation, everything has a rosy look for a sweeping victory all along the line next November.

The presence of Senator Bradley at the Maysville convention next Wednesday will be the magnet which is expected to draw an immense gathering of Republicans.

At Cincinnati Thursday Undertaker Robert Williamson applied to the Probate Court for appointment as Administrator of the estate of John H. and Effie Catron. Catron killed his wife and himself a few days ago, and both bodies were brought to Washington, where they were buried. The wife's estate is estimated at $361, and that of the husband at $156. Mrs. Catron left two sisters, and Catron had three brothers and two sisters.

If You Are Interested

Enough to look in our clothing window and note the prices on the suits displayed, which are only a small representation of the stock, you will be convinced that we want to sell them "mighty bad." We are showing a line of shirts that not only are a credit to us, but also a credit to the town. Very few houses in the largest cities show lines of shirts, underwear, hose and neckwear such as we are now showing our patrons.

DON'T FORGET OUR SHOES!!

None like them in Maysville, and every pair guaranteed to give reasonable satisfaction. We already have in our Barker-Brown Fall Work Shoes. You know they are the best work shoe made in the country.

The funeral of little Robert Brown yesterday afternoon was largely attended. The large auditorium of St. Patrick's Church was nearly filled to its capacity by relatives and friends of the parents and admirers of the deceased. Rev. Father Jones delivered a most pathetic discourse, bringing tears to the eyes of many in his congregation. Six little companions acted as pallbearers. The interment was in Washington Cemetery.

Saturday Brooks Mullikin of Sardis was fined in Judge Rice's Court $20 each on two counts for illegally selling whisky in local option territory.

NOTICE SERVED.

The transcript of the record is being prepared and notice has been served on the Maysville Street Railway and Transfer Company that the City of Maysville will, on next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, present a motion before Judge E. C. O'Rear of the Court of Appeals, at the Capitol Building in Frankfort, to dissolve the injunction lately granted by the Judge of the Mason Circuit Court. It was not learned what other Judges Judge O'Rear has invited to sit with him and hear the motion. City Attorney J. M. Collins and Hon. A. D. Cole will represent the city and Attorneys Worthington, Cochran & Browning and Slattery & Rees the Streetcar Company.
